Another new occasional store joins the Carver lineup: Country Cottage of Carver has settled into brick-walled digs at 204 N. Broadway St. Proprietor Cheryl Ogren-Johnson has filled the tiny space -- 357 square feet -- with vintage and painted furniture and "simple comforts" for the home and garden. Her mid-monthly sale starts Thursday and runs through Sunday.

This homage to all things blue will put you in a summer mood. Bloomington blogger Erin Olson -- whose interest in the color turquoise eventually led her to a job in affiliate marketing -- keeps her blog chock full of images from decor to dinnerware in shades that will have you thinking "vive le robin's egg" before you know it.
